

DETERMINATION OF NONSIGNIFICANCE

Description of proposal: Sadie Creek trail project – A 1.87 mile trail on 10,240 acres of DNR managed trust lands, created as an expansion of the Sadie Creek ORV trail system to allow a 4x4 recreation experience in the Olympic Region. The DNR can then start to focus some of this activity into a specific area, rather than uncontrolled across the landscape. This trail will have signed maintenance agreements with user groups. Other areas which are being impacted by this uncontrolled activity can then be closed.

Proponent: Washington State Department of Natural Resources

Location of proposal, including street address, if any: N ½, Section 31, T31N, R09W, in the Sadie Creek block of State Trust Lands located in Clallam County, Washington; west of Joyce.

Lead agency: Washington State Department of Natural Resources

The lead agency for this proposal has determined that it does not have a probable significant adverse impact on the environment. An environmental impact statement (EIS) is not required under RCW 43.21c.030(2)(c). This decision was made after review of a completed environmental checklist and other information on file with the lead agency. This information is available to the public on request.
